STORY 1: Abram leaves home

This story is about trusting God.

Note: Abram and Sarai's names change to Abraham and Sarah in Genesis 17.

Adult Guidance - Use the small pictures to introduce the characters. Use the map below to talk about the long journey. Explain to the children that this journey took several months. Talk about Abram obeying God by trusting Him. The Bible says that we can always trust God.

READ:
Genesis 12: 1-9

One day God told Abram to leave his home and his friends.

God wanted him to go to a country called Canaan. Abram had to trust God to show him the way.

Draw a line along the path that God led Abram.
Circle the camels.

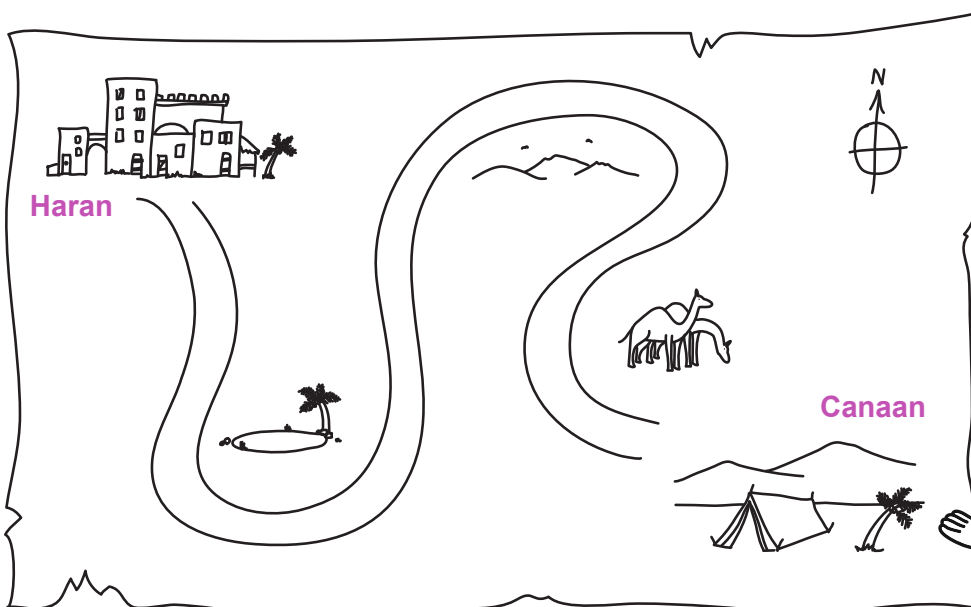

Sarai

Abram

Lot

After a long journey Abram came to Canaan.

God told Abram that it would belong to him.

STORY 2: Abram and Lot

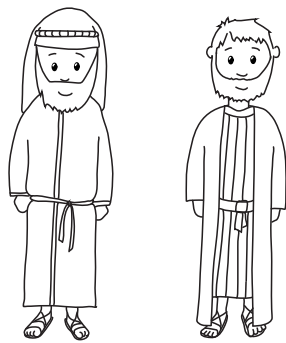

This story is about Lot being selfish.

Note: Abram and Sarai's names change to Abraham and Sarah in Genesis 17.

Adult Guidance -Talk about the two characters in the story, Abram and his nephew Lot. Describe the two choices which Lot was given. Talk about the importance of sharing good things with others. Explain that the Bible teaches that God is pleased when we are kind and put others first.

READ:
Genesis 13: 1-18

Abram

Lot

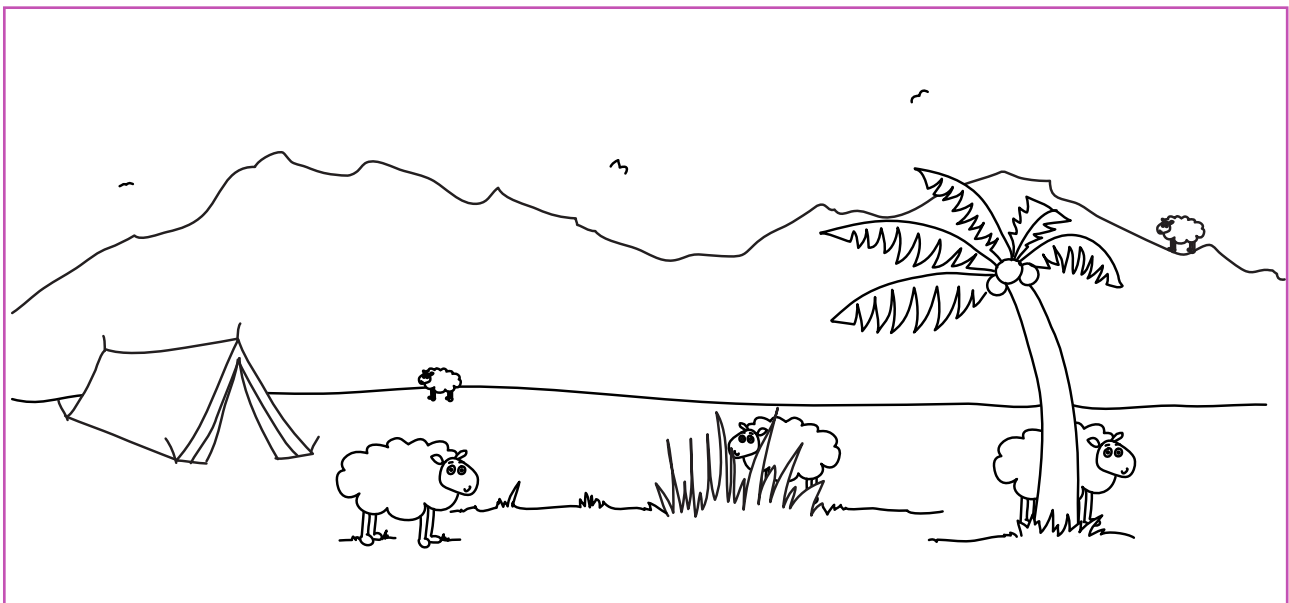

There was not enough space for Abram and Lot to be in the same place.

Abram decided to divide the land.

He gave Lot first choice of where he wanted to go.

Lot was greedy and chose the best land beside the river. Abram was left with the not-so-good land up in the hills.

Find 5 of Abram's sheep in the land of Canaan. Put a circle round each one when you find it.

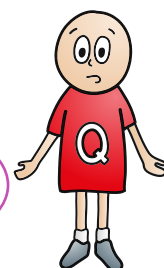

Colour Abram's tent.

Later God spoke to Abram,
"I will give you and your family all the land you can see." Genesis 13: 15

Abram kept on trusting God.

I wonder would I have been as kind as Abram?

STORY 3: God's promises to Abram

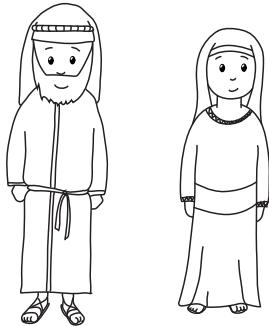

This story is about believing God's promises.

Note: Abram and Sarai's names change to Abraham and Sarah in Genesis 17.

Adult Guidance - Use the small pictures to review the characters in the story. Look at the stars with your children and talk about God as Creator. The Bible teaches that God wants us to believe His promises (Hebrews 11: 8).

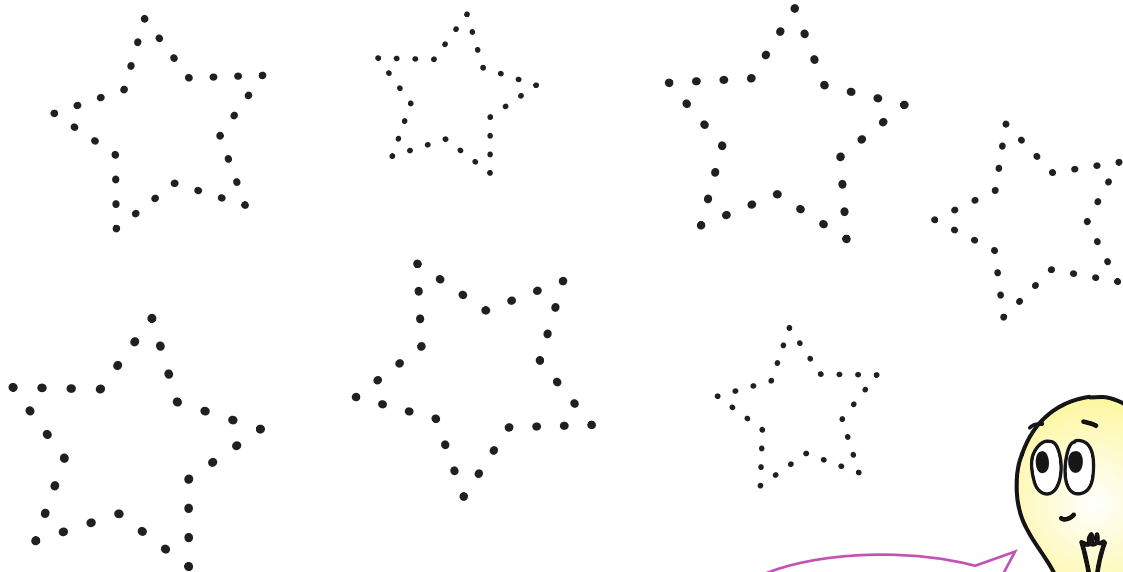

READ:
Genesis 15: 1-7

Abram Sarai

Abram was sad because he and Sarai had no children. One night God told him to go outside and count all the stars. There were far too many for him to count!

Then God told Abram the amazing news that he would have a son. Years later his family would be as big as all the stars in the sky!

Join the dots to draw the stars.
Colour the stars yellow.

The stars remind us how great God is!

Abram believed that God would do this.

God was pleased with Abram.

The Bible says that God is pleased when we believe His promises.

STORY 4: Abraham's visitors

This story is about God's promises coming true.

Note: Abram and Sarai's names change to Abraham and Sarah in Genesis 17.

Adult Guidance - Review God's promise to Abraham in the last story. Talk about promises we like to make. The Bible says God will always keep His promises. Talk about new babies and the joy they bring.

READ:
Genesis 18: 1-15
Genesis 21: 1-7

It was a hot day. Abraham was sitting outside his tent when God sent three visitors.

They told Abraham that the son God had promised would soon be born.

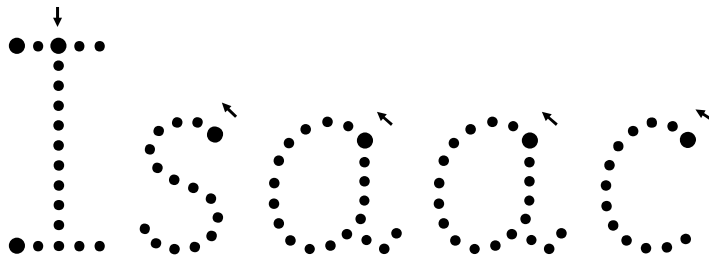

God's promise did come true!

The baby's name was Isaac.

Abraham and Sarah were very happy.

Colour the picture of Abraham, Sarah and their baby son.

Join the dots to write the baby's name.

The Bible says God will always keep His promises.
