STORY 1: Abraham loves God

This story is about loving God most of all.

Adult Guidance - It is not recommended to go into the details of the story for this age group, but to talk about the love between people, and love for God. The Bible says that if we love God we will want to do what He says.

READ:
Genesis 22: 1-14

Abraham Isaac

God answered Abraham's prayer by giving him a son.

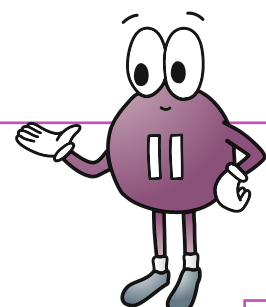

Abraham loved his son Isaac very much.

Abraham loved God too, and showed this by doing what God asked him to do.

Draw someone you love.

The Bible teaches that God wants us to love Him too.

We can show our love to God by doing what He asks us to do in His book, the Bible.

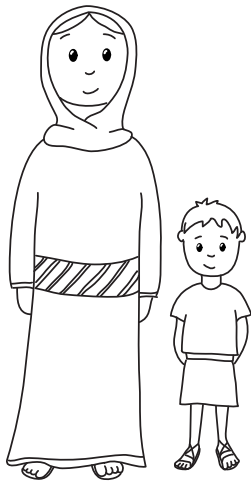

STORY 2: God's care

This story is about how God cares for Hagar.

Adult Guidance - Talk about feeling thirsty. Explain what a well is. Talk about things that make us afraid. The Bible says that God is always with us and cares for us. Talk about ways that God shows His care.

READ:
Genesis 21: 8-20

Hagar Ishmael

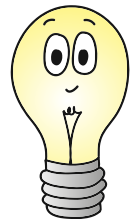

Hagar was Abraham and Sarah's servant.

One day Hagar and her son Ishmael were in a hot, dry place. They had no water to drink. Hagar was afraid and Ishmael was crying.

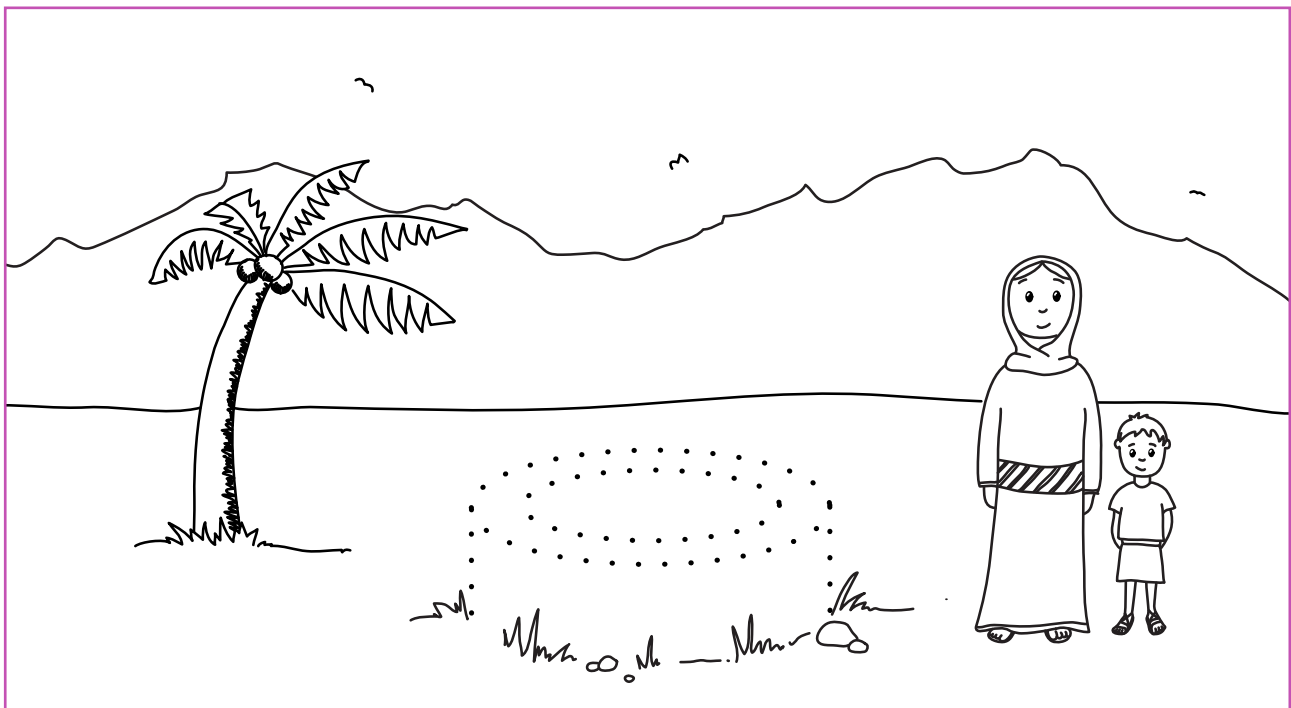

God heard Ishmael crying and told Hagar not to be afraid. Then He showed Hagar a well of water.

Hagar and Ishmael got a drink. God cared for them when they needed help.

*Remember friends,
God cares for you too!*

Join the dots to make the well which God showed to Hagar.
Colour the well brown.

STORY 3: God's help

This story is about God showing the way.

Adult Guidance - Perhaps use a visual, such as a photograph, to talk about weddings and brides. The Bible says that we can ask God to help us with things that are hard. We can trust Him to know what is best.

READ:
Genesis 24: 1-21

Abraham Isaac Servant

In today's story Isaac is grown up. His father Abraham wanted to find him a bride who would be a good wife.

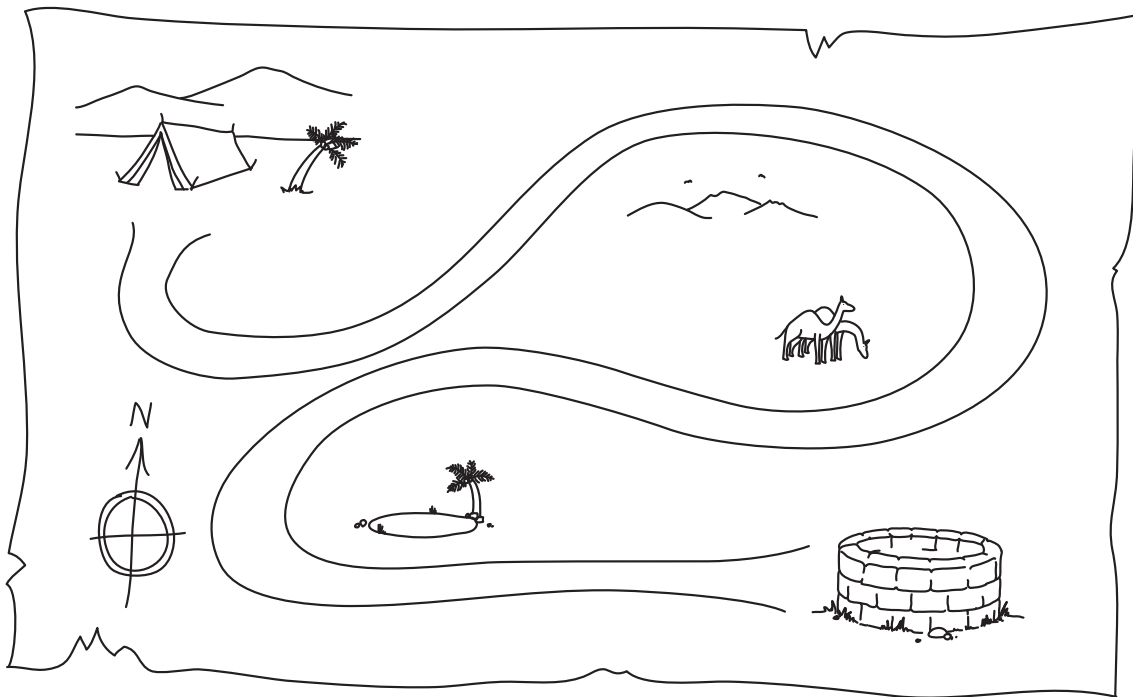

Abraham sent his servant on a long journey to the country where he used to live.

Abraham told his servant that God would lead him to the right girl.

Abraham trusted God to help him. Do you trust God to help you?

Draw a line along the road that the servant travelled on.
Circle the well.

After many days the servant stopped at a well. As he was praying to God, a beautiful girl came along.

She gave water to the servant and his camels.
Her name was Rebekah.

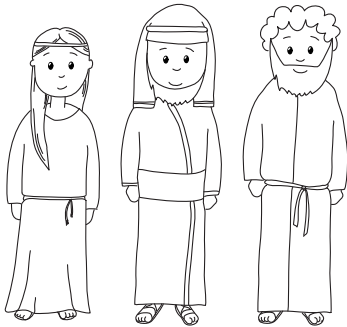

STORY 4: God's choice

This story is about Isaac marrying Rebekah.

Adult Guidance - Review Story 3. Talk about how God answered the servant's prayer. Talk about what makes us happy; the Bible says we can be happy when we trust in Jesus.

READ:
Genesis
24: 22-67

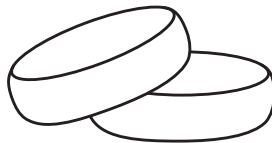

Rebekah Servant Laban

Abraham's servant knew that God had helped him to meet Rebekah. Straight away he gave her a ring and two bracelets.

Later the servant met Rebekah's brother Laban and stayed at their house.

Circle the presents which the servant gave Rebekah. Colour the pictures.

The next morning, Rebekah went back with the servant and became Isaac's bride.

When Isaac met Rebekah he loved her and they were married. They were both very happy that God had brought them together.

The Bible says that we too can be happy, when we trust Jesus with our lives.
