STORY 1: Abram leaves home

This story is about Abram trusting God.

READ:
Genesis 12: 1-9

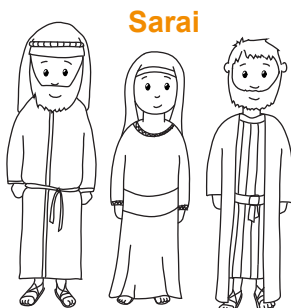

Note: Abram and Sarai's names change to Abraham and Sarah in Genesis 17.

Abram was 75 years old. He was living in a big city called Haran. One day God asked Abram to leave his home and go to a new land. God said He would guide him to the right place.

Abram was to go on a long journey to a place called Canaan.

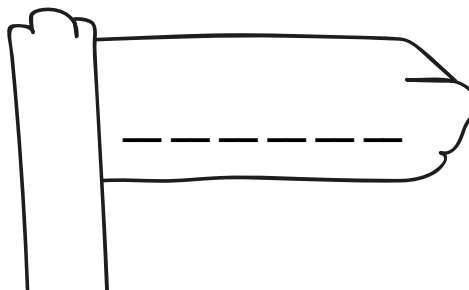

Abram trusted God and set out. His wife Sarai and his nephew Lot went with him.

Write on the signpost the name of the place they were to go to.

STORY 2: Abram and Lot

This story is about Lot's selfish choice.

READ:
Genesis 13: 1-18

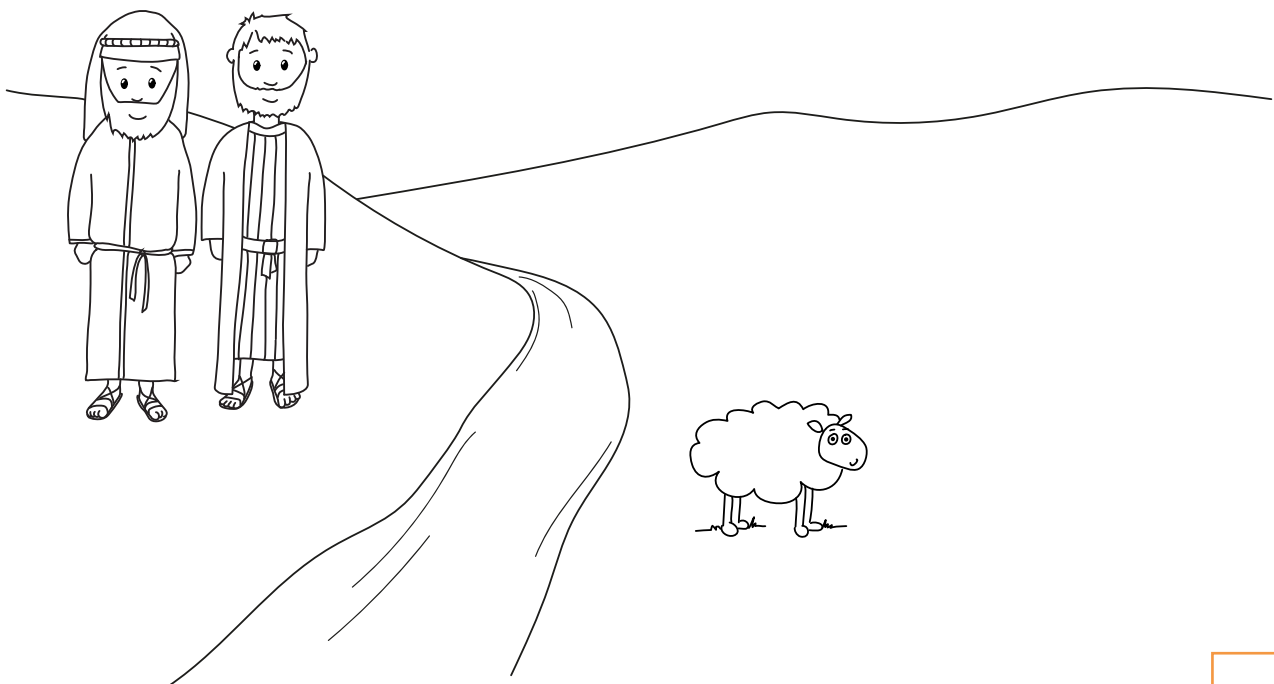

Note: Abram and Sarai's names change to Abraham and Sarah in Genesis 17.

Abram and Lot both had large numbers of animals and many servants to look after them.

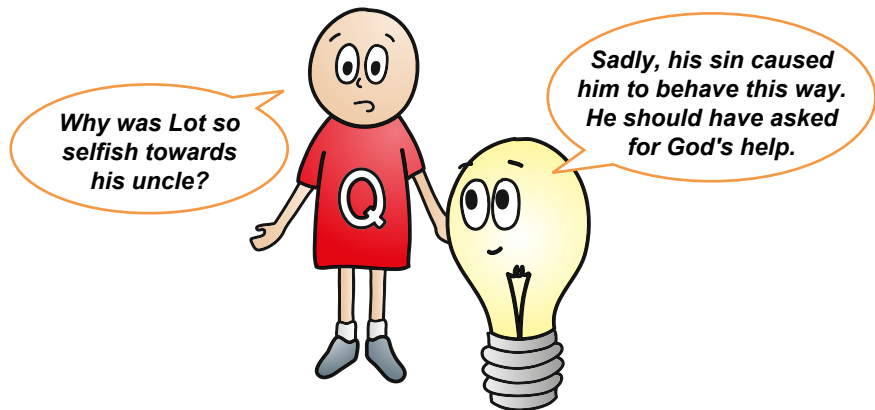

One day their servants were arguing because there was not enough grass to feed all the animals. Abram did not want any arguments. So he said that he and Lot should live in different places.

Abram gave Lot the first choice of the land. Abram was very kind. But Lot was not kind. He was very greedy and selfish, and chose the best land for himself.

Draw lots of sheep on the good land that Lot chose and colour the picture.

After Lot had left, God told Abram that He would give him ALL the land. Abram was not selfish and God gave him the very best.

Answer TRUE or FALSE to these sentences.

Abram gave Lot first choice of the land.

Lot was very kind.

Lot chose the best land for himself.

God said He would give Abram SOME land.

STORY 3: God's promises to Abram

This story is about believing God's promises.

Note: Abram and Sarai's names change to Abraham and Sarah in Genesis 17.

READ:
Genesis 15: 1-7

Abram was sad because he had no children. He wanted a little boy, so he asked God to give him a son.

God told Abram to go outside his tent, look up into the night sky, and count all the stars.

But Abram could not count the stars. There were far too many!

Fill in the correct words to finish the sentences. Use the pictures to help you.

Abram was s _ _ _ .

He asked God for a _ o _ .

Abram went outside his _ _ n _ .

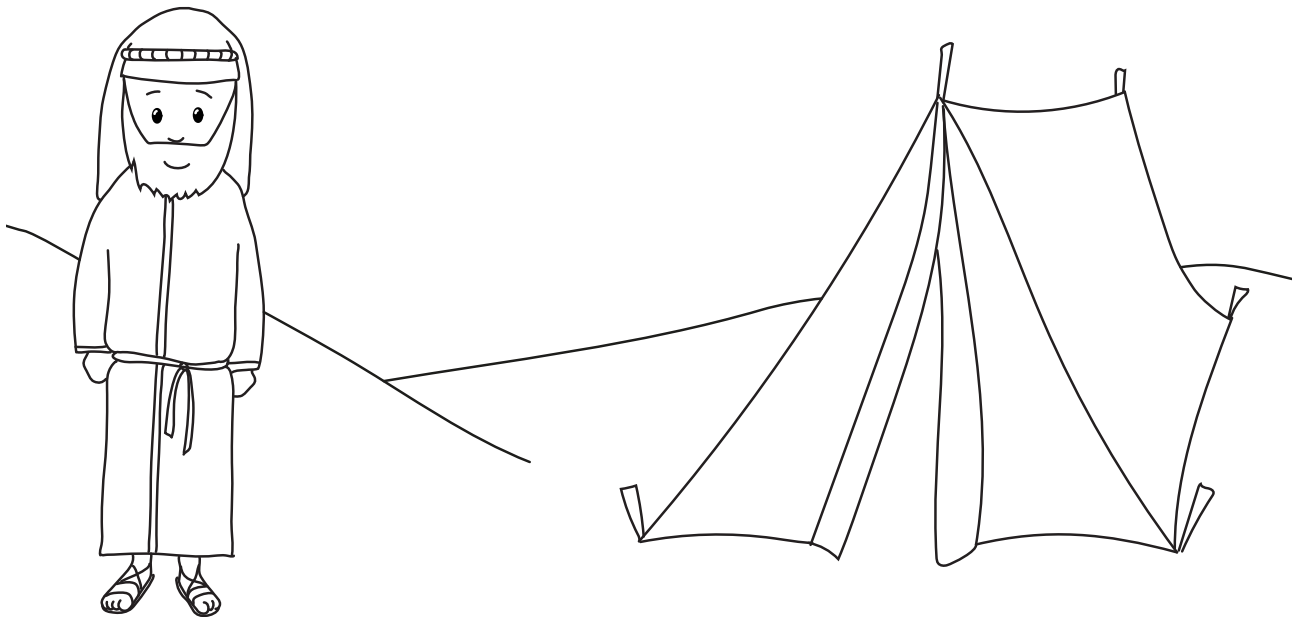

God told him to count the _ _ _ r _ .

Then God promised Abram a son. But that was not all! In the years to come, his family would become as many as the stars in the sky. Abram believed what God was telling him.

Colour the picture and draw lots of stars.

STORY 4: Abraham and the visitors

This story is about God's promises coming true.

Note: Abram and Sarai's names change to Abraham and Sarah in Genesis 17.

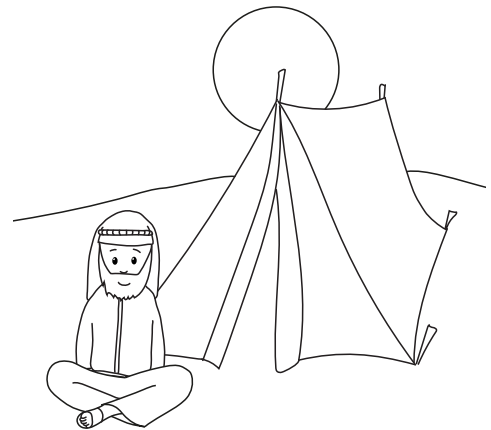

READ:
Genesis 18: 1-15
Genesis 21: 1-7

It was a hot day. Abraham was sitting at the door of his tent.

Three very special visitors came to see him. They were God's messengers from Heaven!

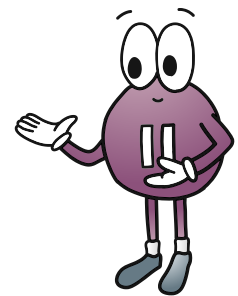

Abraham made them welcome. He told them to rest, while he and Sarah made them a lovely meal.

After the meal, Abraham and Sarah were told that the son God had promised them would be born shortly. Sarah, who was old, laughed at the idea!

Join the dots to see the question that God asked.

"Is anything too hard for the Lord?"

Genesis 18: 14
