STORY 1: Peter tells people about Jesus

This story is about the coming of the Holy Spirit.

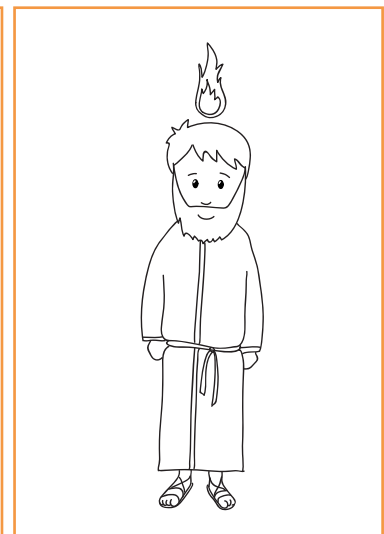

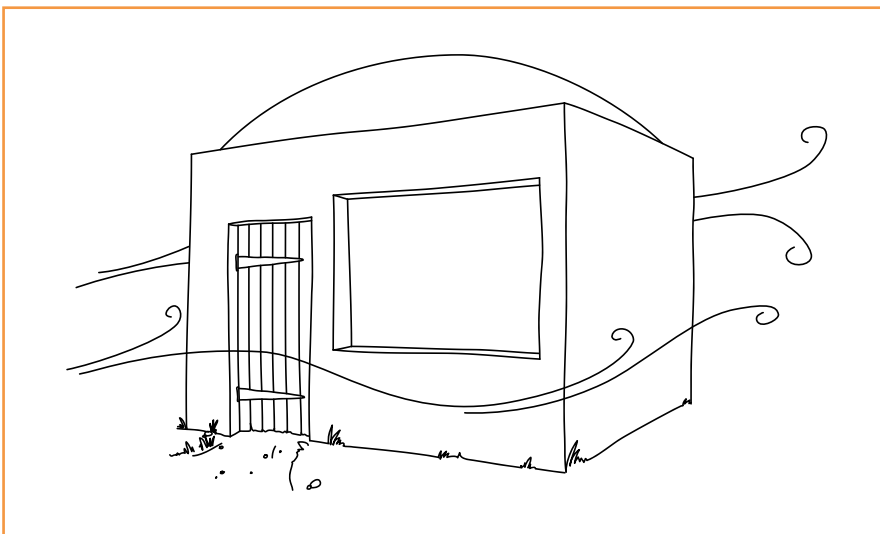

READ:
Acts 2: 1-14,
36-39

After Jesus had gone back to Heaven, He sent the Holy Spirit to help His disciples. The disciples needed the Holy Spirit's help to tell the people about Jesus.

When the Holy Spirit came, the disciples were in a house. The coming of the Holy Spirit sounded like wind and looked like fire. The disciples were then able to speak in new languages. The Holy Spirit gave them strength and courage to tell everyone the good news about Jesus.

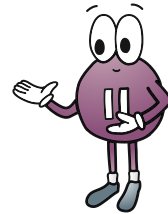

Draw Jesus' disciples in the house and fill in the missing letters.
Colour the pictures.

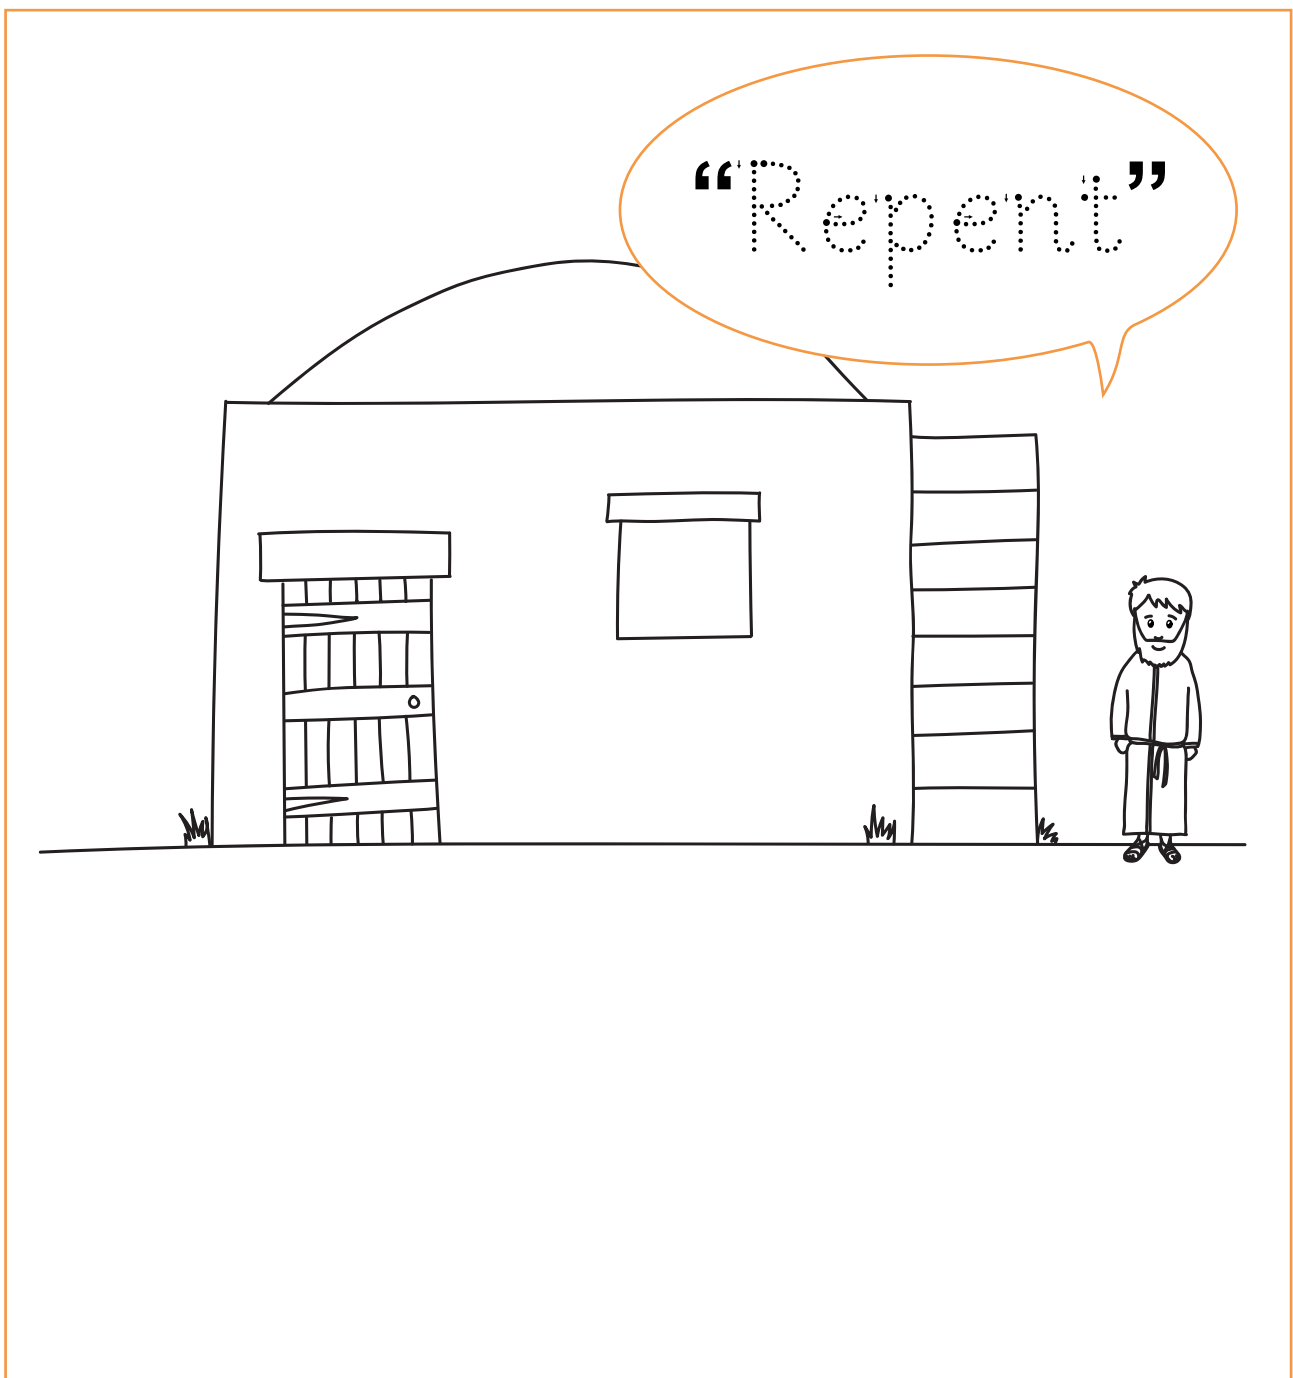

There was a sound like w _____. They saw what looked like f _____.
The H _____ S _____ came.

Peter began to talk to the big crowd of people who gathered outside the house. He told them that they should be really sorry about what they had done to Jesus. They needed to repent - to turn away from their sin and turn to God for forgiveness.

Draw lots of people outside the house with Peter.

STORY 2: Peter heals a lame man

This story is about God's healing power.

READ:
Acts 3: 1-16

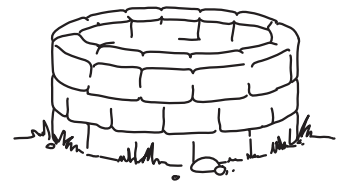

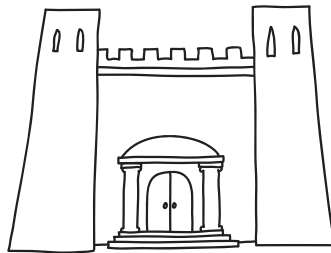

One day, not long after the Holy Spirit came, Peter and John were going into the Temple.

At the Temple gate they met a man who was lame, and had never been able to walk. He asked Peter and John for money, but Peter had something better than money for him! "In the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth," said Peter, "rise up and walk."

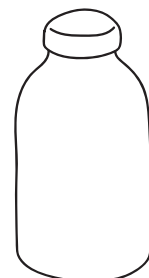

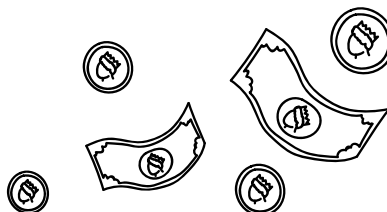

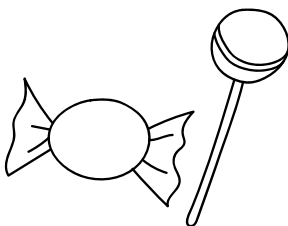

He took his hand, helped him to his feet, and immediately the lame man was healed!

Where were Peter and John going? Colour the correct answer.

What did the man want? Colour the correct answer.

The man walked about, and even jumped in the air, as he praised God for making him well. Crowds of people quickly gathered, and Peter told them about Jesus. They had put Him on a cross, but God had raised Him to life again. The power of Jesus had made the lame man completely well.

Fill in the blanks to see what the man did after he was healed.

STORY 3: Peter in prison

This story is about how God helps those who serve Him.

READ:
Acts 4: 1-22

Peter and John were telling people about how Jesus had been raised from the dead. Then along came the Temple rulers. They were very angry with Peter and John. They did not believe the good news about Jesus, so they put Peter and John in prison for the night.

Write in the boxes the names of the two disciples who were put in prison.

The next morning, the court ordered them never to speak about Jesus again. But Peter and John were not afraid. They were going to obey God, no matter what happened to them. They knew He would help them. The Bible says that He will be our helper too when we trust and obey Him.

Remember to ask
God for His help when you feel afraid.

Decorate the Bible verse.

"The Lord is my helper."

STORY 4: Peter is set free

This story is about God answering prayer.

READ:
Acts 4: 23-31

Peter and John were happy when the court allowed them to leave. When they were released, they went to see their Christian friends. They told them everything that had happened. Then they all agreed that they should pray to God. They wanted to ask Him for courage to spread the good news about Jesus. They began to pray.

What did Peter and John's friends pray for?

Fill in the missing letters below.

Draw some of their friends praying beside them.

"Please give us c _ _ _ _ _ to spread the g _ _ _ _ n _ _ _ _
