STORY 2: Joshua and the new land

This story is about Rahab's belief in God.

READ:
Joshua 2: 1-24

Joshua sent two spies to Canaan to look over the land. They went to Jericho and stayed at the house of a lady called Rahab. Jericho was surrounded by walls and Rahab lived in a house on the wall.

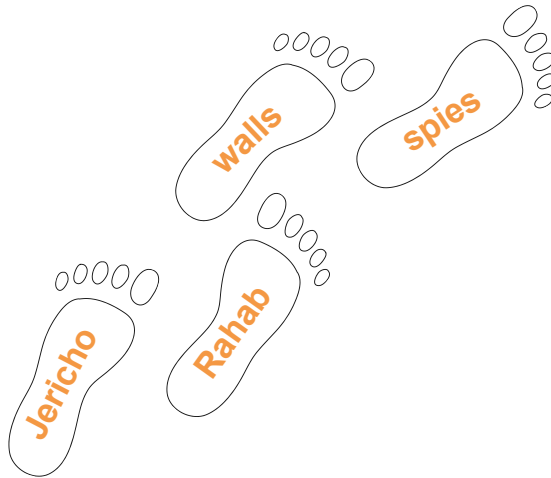

The king of Jericho heard that the spies had come to his city and sent messengers to them at Rahab's house.

STORY 3: Joshua and the River Jordan

This story is about God's power.

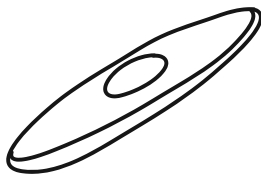

READ:
Joshua 3: 1-17

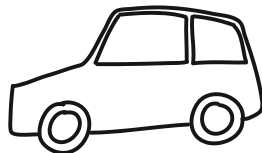

Joshua had a problem. He could not take the people of Israel (Israelites) into their new land of Canaan until they had crossed the River Jordan. The Jordan was overflowing and there was no bridge across it. How was he going to get thousands of people across?

How could you cross a river? Circle the correct pictures.

STORY 4: Joshua and Jericho

This story is about God giving the victory.

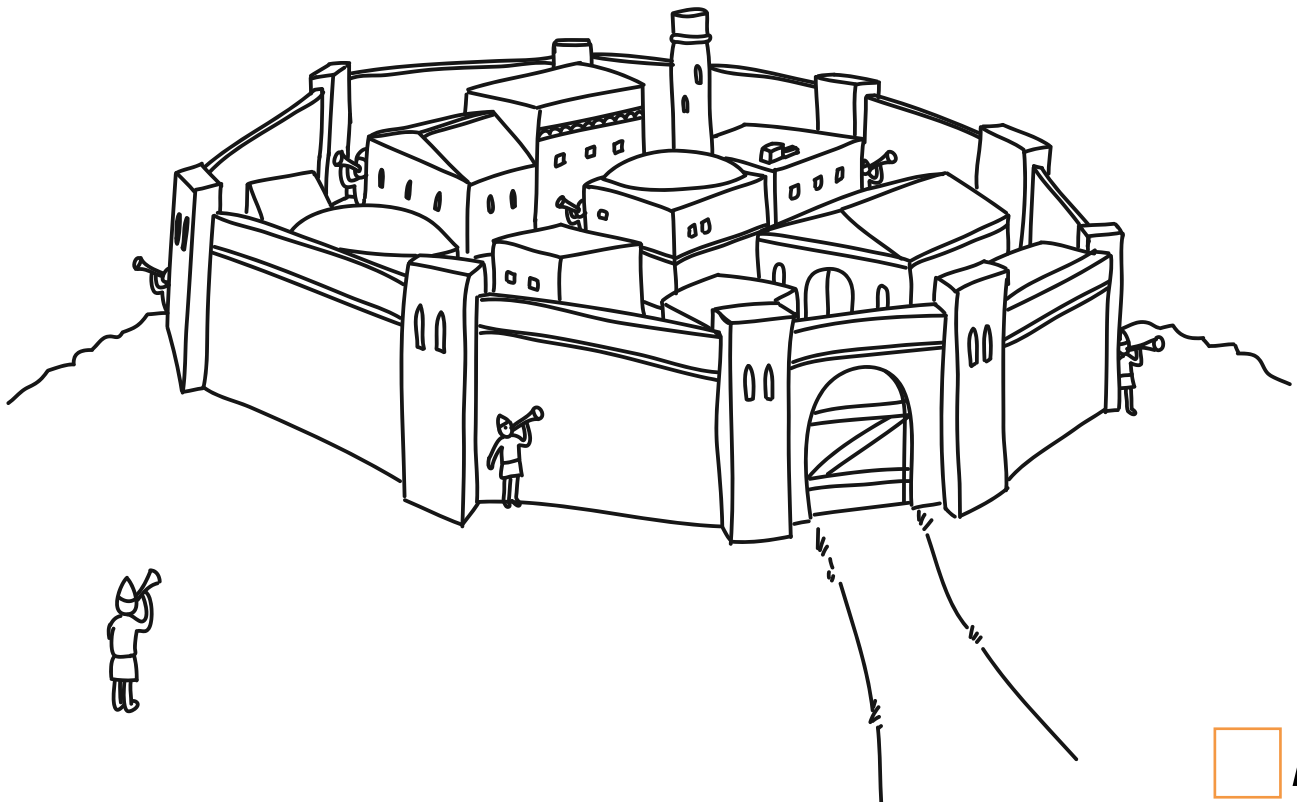

READ:
Joshua 6: 1-25

Now the time had come to attack Jericho. The army was ready and the people of Jericho feared what was going to happen to them. God had a special plan so that everybody would know who had really won the victory.

The people were to march around Jericho once each day for six days. The seven priests were to blow their trumpets, but the people were to keep quiet. On the seventh day, God told them to go around the city seven times, and then the people had to shout!

See if you can circle seven priests with trumpets hiding in and around the city of Jericho.

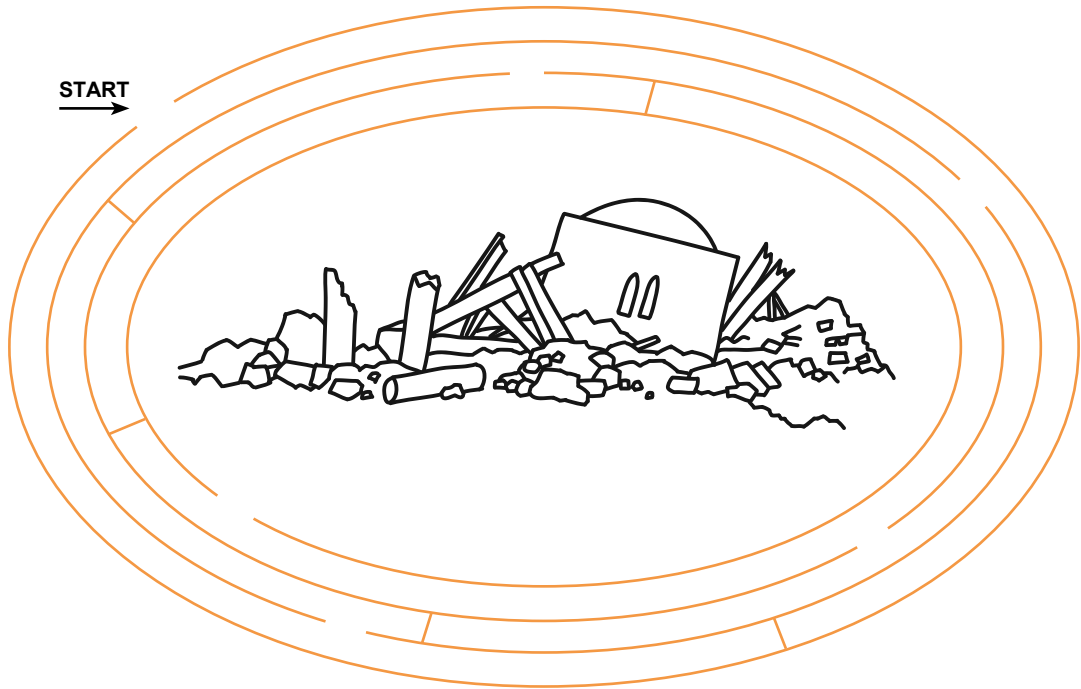

When the people shouted, the walls fell down flat! The army rushed into Jericho and everyone was destroyed, except Rahab and her family. God gave Joshua's army a great victory over their enemy.

Do you know that God can do great things?
